I. Scholarships and Fellowships

Berea College- 4-Year Tuition Scholarship

If admitted to Berea, you will receive a 4-year tuition scholarship. This scholarship is combined with financial aid you may receive as well as any other scholarship you may be awarded by outside parties or organizations to cover 100% of tuition costs for four years of enrollment.

We are able to provide this level of financial assistance due to the generous support of alumni, friends, organizations, and others who believe, as we do, that a student's income should not dictate their outcome.

So when you enroll at Berea, your scholarship will be provided by people you don't even know who believe in your potential—and who know that Berea is well-positioned to help you realize that potential.

Howard Foundation Fellowships

The Howard Foundation awards a limited number of fellowships each year for independent projects in fields selected on a six-year rotation of topics. Approximately ten fellowships will be awarded for 2009-2010 in the fields of history and philosophy. Stipends of $25,000 are awarded to support individuals working on specific research projects. Howard Fellowships may not be used to prepare exhibits or to support institutional programs. There are no residency requirements for individuals who receive awards. We are willing to grant awardees some flexibility in postponing the year in which they actually use their fellowships.

Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library, Yale University 2009-2010 VISITING FELLOWSHIPS

The Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library offers short-term fellowships to support visiting scholars pursuing postdoctoral or equivalent research in its collections. The Beinecke Library is Yale University's principal repository for literary papers, and for early manuscripts and rare books in the fields of literature, theology, history, and the natural sciences. The fellowships, which pay for travel to and from New Haven and a living allowance of $4,500 per month, are designed to provide access to the library for scholars who live outside the greater New Haven area.

Students enrolled in degree programs are ineligible. 2009-2010 Fellowships, normally granted for one month, must be taken up between September 1, 2009 and May 31, 2010.
